ORDER CLARIFYING THE COURT'S PROCEDURE FOR DISCOVERY DISPUTE CALLS

On December 3, 2014, the Court held a scheduling conference involving all of the parties in this matter. At that conference, the Court informed the parties of its standard practice with regard to discovery disputes: that the parties having the dispute first confer with each other, and if unable to resolve the dispute, the parties are to call the Court and schedule a time for a telephonic conference prior to the filing of any discovery motions.

On January 26, 2015, counsel for State Farm informed the Court that there was a dispute between it and defendants Horizon Imaging and Clear Imaging. The Court issued a notice to appear by telephone, but did not specify which parties were to appear.

To alleviate confusion with regard to notices that appear on the docket, it is hereby ordered that:

When contacting the Court to schedule a discovery dispute, the party contacting the Court must relay which parties are involved in the dispute. The Court will note on the docket which parties are to be involved in the telephonic conference. Parties not involved in a given discovery dispute are not required to call in for the corresponding telephonic conference unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
